

Crisis Hotlines

1-800-621-4000 National Runaway Switchboard

The National Runaway Switchboard provides non-judgmental support, respects confidentiality, collaborates with volunteers, and responds to at-risk youth and their families 24 hours a day.

1-800-999-9999 NINELINE Hotline

NINELINE is toll-free, a confidential crisis hotline that operates 365 days a year, 1PM-5PM. The NINELINE crisis counselors can connect callers with immediate assistance in your state. They help kids, parents, and caregivers dealing with serious problems like abuse, running away, and suicide.

1-800-656-4673 RAINN

The Rape, Abuse & Incest National Network (RAINN) hotline provides: 1) crisis intervention and support, 2) answers to your questions about recovering from sexual assault, 3) information about medical issues, 4) explanations of the criminal justice system, and what to expect when you report the crime to the police, 5) referrals to resources in your area, and 6) information for family and friends of victims.

1-800-784-2433 Suicide Crisis Center

The Suicide Crisis Center links callers to a certified crisis center nearest to a caller's location.