4. REPORTS

4.1 Superintendent/Principal Report

- Academic-

- STAR assessment: Math +16% Schoolwide, Reading +9% Schoolwide

- Writing: Younger grades, mostly near benchmark, with more of our older students, at or above benchmark.
 - DiBels/Dyslexia Screening is in process for 2nd grade, Kinder and 1st will be screened in the spring.
- Engagement
 - Attendance: 2025-26 = 94.44%, 2024-25 = 93.14%
- Health and Wellness
 - Jogging club: Some students are really committed to the program having run 50+ miles this year.
 - Snacks: Thanks to the cafeteria crew and Claire for keeping the healthy options snacks available each day.
- Stormwater Project
 - Final planting was last week. We have had some issues with the deer pulling the little plants out of the ground at night but overall the area is on its way to look great by spring when the plants begin to grow.

4.2 Director of Maintenance, Operations and Transportation Report: Mark Van Houten

- The Watershed Project is complete and looks great.
- Our Facilities Inspection Tool (FIT) is very good.
- We will be purchasing HVAC covers for our rooftop units and will wrap up the playground crack repairs.
- We have hired a new Bus Driver/Custodian who is in the training process.
- Over the break we will be redoing the gym floor.
- The new bus delivery has been pushed out to May 2026.
- The big project this summer will be to repair/replace the concrete around the tables on the upper campus
- The school has purchased two containers to hold the extra furniture and sports equipment in the mall. The idea is to clear the mall so it can be used for inclement weather programs.

4.3 Board Member Report: None

4.4 Staff Reports:

- Tk-We are learning letters G,N,J, Numbers 4&5 and rhyming. We will be enjoying Santa Workshop activities, a PJ day, and Christmas movie with popcorn.
- K- Its giant gingerbread cookie time where we bake a really big cookie, read about gingerbread and learn the soft G sound.
- 1st- Learning addition/subtraction to 20, and point of view writing about reindeer.
- 2nd- The class is studying Christmas around the world.
- 3rd- Our class wrapped up the animal adaption unit and are working on candy cane science, point of view writing, 3-digit addition/subtraction, multiplication and art projects using lines and shading.
- 6th- The class is authoring and illustrating a children's book, and Performing Reader's Theatre for Elf Day. They are also building gingerbread pyramids as part of Egyptian Civilization study.
- 8th- Students are using the play Hamilton as Social Study/Poetry connection studies. They are also sponsoring a Donut Fundraiser for upcoming graduation celebrations.
